1. In spring 1953, the Communal Building Enterprise (Stavebni komunalni podnik), located on Prazska ulice, Chomutov, transported small quantities of construction material, chiefly sand and gravel, to the Zatec Airport.
2. At irregular intervals, the same firm transports construction material, chiefly tile, sand and lime, to locations in the mountains near Nacetin (Natschung) and Kienhaid (Kuehnhaide), where barracks for the Czech Border Guard (PS) are being built in the woods. The nearest Border Guard headquarters is located at Kalek (Kallich-N51/K93). The Chomutov Communal Building Enterprise is constructing these barracks.
3. In summer 1953, the firm also transported material for internal repairs to the Eisenberg Castle, near Litvinov (Oberleutensdorf), and for road construction. The castle and the road leading to it are used for military purposes.
- 5 4. The jet fighters at the Zatec Airfield are able to start directly from the underground hangars at the field, which are probably located in the middle of the runway.
